STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This three bay wide, three story structure is laid in running bond. The first story consist of a store front of four sheet glass panels flanked by doors with one piece transoms. An entablature and a moulded cornice with a dentil row beneath - all of metal- come immediately above the first story.

All windows are double casement windows with twenty lights except the second story's right bay, which is double hung with nine-over-one lights. Second story window sills and splayed brick lintels, third story windows have no lintels.

Above the third story windows is a bracketed roof cornice.
